

GREECE, TURKEY, IRAN, SAUDI ARABIA

GREECE

	Military Budget	Total Manpower (Ages 15-49)	Maximum Practicable Strength of Armed Forces*
1949	$200,000,000	1,844,000	250,000
1950	200,000,000	1,831,000	250,000
1951	150,000,000	1,918,000	225,000
1952	100,000,000	1,955,000	200,000
1953	75,000,000	1,992,000	175,000

* These figures represent the total estimated manpower which could safely be maintained under training in the armed forces, with due regard to the political and economic factors involved.

 Including ECA counterpart funds, but not counting direct US military aid.

 Assuming virtual elimination of guerrilla movement.

TURKEY

	Military Budget	Total Manpower (Ages 15-49)	Maximum Practicable Strength of Armed Forces*
1949	$225,000,000	5,143,000	400,000
1950	207,000,000	5,253,000	380,000
1951	203,000,000	5,359,000	360,000
1952	198,000,000	5,464,000	350,000
1953	191,000,000	5,571,000	350,000

* These figures represent the total estimated manpower which could safely be maintained under training in the armed forces, with due regard to the political and economic factors involved.

IRAN

	Military Budget	Total Manpower (Ages 15-49)	Maximum Practicable Strength of Armed Forces*
1949	$ 78,000,000	3,650,000	137,500
1950	82,625,000	3,710,000	146,750
1951	87,250,000	3,770,000	156,000
1952	91,875,000	3,830,000	165,250
1953	96,500,000	3,890,000	174,500

* These figures represent the total estimated manpower which could safely be maintained under training in the armed forces, with due regard to the political and economic factors involved.

SAUDI ARABIA

	Military Budget	Total Manpower (Ages 15-49)	Maximum Practicable Strength of Armed Forces*
1949	$ 30,000,000	1,360,000	8,000
1950	35,000,000	1,385,000	20,000
1951	40,000,000	1,410,000	40,000
1952	45,000,000	1,435,000	60,000
1953	45,000,000	1,460,000	80,000

* These figures represent the total estimated manpower which could safely be maintained under training in the armed forces, with due regard to the political and economic factors involved.

~~TOP SECRET~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~